LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Lynn Free returned to Lansing on Monday last.

Wm. Cook of South Haven, was in town last week.

Miss Mande Hawkins is visiting friends in Kalamazoo.

Will Strowbridge has recovered from his recent illness.

Miss May Dyer has been visiting friends in this village.

Whoever lost that large brass key will find it at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Foote are camping at Lake Park this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Crane of Kalamazoo, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Clara Chappell is visiting friends in the state of New York.

Will Randall of Kalamazoo, was in town the forepart of the week.

A new coal furnace has been placed in the basement of the First National Bank.

Miss Clara Kimes went to Ypsilanti on Monday last. She will attend the Normal school.

The date of the republican caucus in Porter has been changed to Tuesday evening, Sept. 7th.

P. Mackellar has removed his jewelry shop from Longwell's drug store to Jones' furniture ware rooms.

Dallas Bondeman, one of Kalamazoo's leading lawyers, was in town last Saturday looking after legal matters in the probate court.

The sale of Kansas ponies in this village on Saturday last attracted a large crowd of people. The stock was much better than some that has been previously offered for sale here.

Our Hartford correspondence reached us last week, after our papers were all printed and mailed. Monday's mail at the latest, should bring all communications intended for publication.

The Northern Berrien County and Michigan Lake Shore Agricultural Society fair will be held at Benton Harbor from Sept. 14th to 17th inclusive. We acknowledge the usual courtesies extended to the press.

The following is the list of letters remaining uncalled for at the Paw Paw postoffice for the week ending August 30th, 1886: M.
C. Daniels, D. G. Jennings, Thos. Landys, Joe Miller, Charles Stevens, C. W. Taw.

The greenback county convention will be held at Lawrence on Tuesday, September 14th, 1886. By a most singular (?) coincidence the democratic county convention will be held at the same time and place. Strange!

The quarterly district meeting of the Christian Church begins at Decatur on Thursday the 2d inst., and will continue over next Lord's Day, consequently there will be no services next Sunday at the Disciple Church.

Among the many Grand Army men who attended the funeral of Dr. Andrews on Sunday last, were Col. Robert Burns and Hon. J. C. Burrows of Kalamazoo, and Editor Don C. Henderson of the Allegan Journal and Tribune.

Commissioner Sam Holmes and Judge Hilton started on the other day with the avowed purpose of taking testimony at Bangor. The last heard from them they were wearily wandering in the wild wilderness of Waverly. Lost, probably.

The Willard and Sherman ponds have both been drawn off so that needed repairs to dams etc., may be made. The perfumery spread abroad by reason thereof is the reverse of agreeable and not exactly conducive to health and comfort of our citizens.

Those five bargains of Broughton's are well worth looking after.

Notice Chappell's neat, new "ad" of jewelry, watches, clocks, school books, etc.

C. W. Young visited Jackson last Monday on business connected with the state fair.

Miss Mamie Rowland will fill out pension vouchers at Judge Hilton's office on Saturday.

Union temperance meeting at the First Baptist Church, Sunday evening Sept. 5th.
Address by Elder W. J. Russell.

There will be a meeting of the W. C. T. U. on Friday, September 3d, at half past two o'clock p. m., at the reading room.

School begins next Monday. Let every pupil strive to be in attendance the first day, and every day thereafter, for that matter.

The Cleveland Bay Horse Company is supposed to be tossing on the broad bosom of the briny deep, en route from Europe to America.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Leech had the misfortune to lose their babe last Saturday.
It was carried to Chelsea, their former home, for burial.

How is it Bert, about that word of yours?
It need be worth more than a few cigars when you was a member of the Paw Paw republican club.

Cole was a little too previous. He was rushing around last Saturday afternoon, trying to find the republican caucus. Try it again, Cole, next Saturday.

The Paw Paws and Kalamazoos played a game of ball on the grounds of the latter club last Tuesday. The score stood 13 to 6 in favor of the Kalamazoos.

Last Tuesday, while the train was coming from Lawton to Paw Paw, one of the connecting rods of the engine dropped down, disabling one cylinder. The train ran in all right with the other one.

A new platform has been laid in front of the engine house and the building is ready for occupancy. The next meeting of the fire company--Thursday evening, September 2d--will probably be held in the new hall.

The latest advice concerning railroad matters are very encouraging. The prospect is exceedingly good for a speedy extension of the road from Hartford to South Haven. May it come soon, the sooner the better.

We understand that a new business has been started in town by the firm of Spicer & Mosier--Dan and Charley--who will manufacture soft soap and fanning mills. The paid up capital of the firm is said to be just a dollar and a half.

John Pelton Jr. is buying wheat in this market. He is in the employ of Kalamazoo parties. With two such buyers as Van Auken and Pelton, farmers need have no fear that they will not get prices that are at the very top of the market.

The farmers' picnic at Four Mile Lake came off on Tuesday last. We were unable to attend and our forms close too soon to be able us to give a report, but, we don't not, those who did attend had a fine time, although the weather was a little too cool for comfort.

Republicans of this township should remember the caucus at the Town Hall on Saturday next. There should be a full representation of the party and any republican that stays away has no right to kick at what may be done nor at the ticket that shall be subsequently nominated.

The annual school meeting will be held in the high school room on Monday evening next. Let all our citizens be present and show their appreciation of and interest in the excellent school that has been built up in our village. Ladies ought to attend as well as gentlemen. It is one of the places where they can exercise the "right of suffrage" if they choose to do so.

The republican congressional convention for the fourth district will be held at the village of St. Joseph, Berrien County, on Wednesday, the 8th day of September inst., at 1:30 p. m. Delegates and all others wishing to attend the convention can leave Kalamazoo on the K. & S. H. R. R. at 7:20 a. m., and arrive at St. Joseph by special train on the C. & W. M. R. Y. at about ten o'clock a. m.
Reduced rates will be given on the K. & S.
H., and probably by other roads.

The following candidates were nominated at the prohibition convention held at Lawrence last Tuesday: Sheriff, J. J. Monthrop of South Haven; Clerk, Jason Woodman of Paw Paw; Treasurer, A. N. Chamberlain of Decatur; Register, F. W. Harburt of South Haven; Coroners, John Kelly of Bloomingdale, and G. W. Stiles of Antwerp; Representative, first district, John W. Free of Paw Paw; second district, A. Haven of Bloomingdale. No candidates were placed in nomination for the offices of prosecuting attorney or circuit court commissioners.

Mr. J. C. Gould of Antwerp, the bee man, harvested about 3,000 pounds of extracted honey. This reminds us that we read, not long since, in some agricultural paper, that honey comb was one of the things that was always sure to be genuine, that could not be manufactured by any process except the natural one. Mr. Gould says that such is not the case, and that all bee-men make their own honey comb with a machine made for that purpose. He says it is unprofitable to allow bees to spend their time in making comb. There is one good thing about the matter though, and that is that the comb must be made out of genuine material for if largely adulterated the bees will reject it and make new comb of their own.

Briefs.

The following is a list of new suits commenced in our circuit court for the month of

At Rest.

Dr. Josiah Andrews departed this life, Thursday evening, August 26th, 1886. His death was not unexpected, as he had been subject to frequent spells of severe illness ever since the close of his army life, and his friends had long anticipated that some one of them would prove fatal. He was taken with his last illness during the night of Saturday, August 21st. His disease had been diagnosed as stricture of the bowels, and a post mortem examination, held on Sunday morning, verified the correctness of the diagnosis. Such disease was, without doubt, contracted during his military service and had been continuous ever since.

The funeral services were held on Sunday last at two o'clock p. m., at the residence.
The exercises were brief, consisting of singing, a brief sketch of the life of the deceased and an eulogy upon his character, pronounced by Dr. Foster Pratt of Kalamazoo, followed by an appropriate prayer delivered by Rev.
L. B. Fish, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this village. The funeral was under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, of which fraternity the deceased was a loved and honored member. About two hundred of his old comrades of this order were present to pay their last tribute of respect. The remains of the deceased were laid at rest in the beautiful Prospect Hill cemetery, the solemn and impressive burial service of the Grand Army being read at the grave. The members of the medical profession throughout the county were also quite generally present to render their last sad service to their deceased co-laborer.

Dr. Andrews was born on the 28th day of June, 1811, at Metz, N. Y. He graduated from the New York State Medical University in 1838, and soon afterward came to this place where he has resided for the past forty-eight years, and where he has built for himself a reputation and character of which any man might well be proud. As a citizen he was faithful to his duties; as a physician and surgeon he was attentive and skilful, standing at the head of his profession and possessing the confidence and esteem not only of his patients, but of the entire community.

Politically, he was a strong partisan and a radical republican, and was recognized as one of his party leaders, not only in his own county, but in the state. He was a member of the Michigan legislature of 1846-7, and in 1869 was appointed by President Grant as collector of internal revenue, a position that he filled, as he did all others to which he was called, with signal ability.

When the war broke out, he was among the first to offer his services to his country and was mustered into the service of the United States as surgeon of the Third Mich.
Cav., to date from Sept. 7th, 1861, and was honorably discharged therefrom on the 2d day of Oct., 1864. Shortly after being mustered out, he again sought service in the cause of his country and was assigned to duty as staff surgeon on the staff of Maj. Gen.
Mendenhall, where he served until the close of the war. During the years of his service in the Third Cav., the writer was a member of the same regiment, and can personally testify to the ability, skill and bravery of the deceased.

All who knew him, and his acquaintance was large and extensive, will agree in saying that a good man has fallen. The several series of resolutions adopted by the different bodies mentioned will serve to indicate the universal esteem in which he was held:

BY BROODHEAD POST NO. 31, G. A. R.

WHEREAS--Comrade Josiah Andrews was a faithful soldier in the late war for the preservation of the Union, discharging his duty in the sphere in which he was called to act, with eminent ability and satisfaction, and

WHEREAS--He has been a member of this post from its organization, attending its meetings with regularity, manifesting the greatest interest in the principles of the order and filling one of the principal offices of the Post for several years last past, and

WHEREAS--It has pleased the Supreme Commander to muster him out of his service here and order his enrollment in the great army of immortals, therefore

Resolved--That in his death not only this community but the entire state has lost one of its most useful and enlightened citizens, the profession to which he belonged one of its brightest ornaments and foremost members, the Grand Army of the Republic one of its most faithful, devoted and honored comrades, and the country one of its bravest and most loyal defenders.

Resolved--That this Post tender to his bereaved widow and family its heartfelt sympathy and condolence in the hour of their severest sorrow and trial, and assure them that the same warm place in its heart filled by their deceased husband and father will ever be open to them.

Resolved--That the Post room be appropriately draped in mourning for a period of ninety days as an expression of the respect and esteem in which he is held by this Post.

Resolved--That a copy of these resolutions be delivered by the adjutant to the widow of the deceased.

J. C. MCCLAIN, BENJ. F. HECKERT, Committee.
GEO. W. MYERS.

BY THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

WHEREAS--Our late townsman, Dr. Josiah Andrews, having been one of the pioneers of this vicinity, and identified with the growth and prosperity of Paw Paw from its infancy, and

WHEREAS--He has been deeply interested in educational matters, and has served the people of school district No. 1, in the capacity of director for a period of about ten years, most earnestly and zealously, not only in building up a first class school in our midst, but has contributed largely in time and attention to the building of an edifice that is an honor and a just pride to the citizens of Paw Paw;

Resolved--That we, the members of the school board, deeply deplore his decease, and sincerely sympathize with the afflicted widow and daughter in their sore distress and great bereavement.

C. S. MAYNARD, J. W. FREE, Committee.
G. W. LONGWELL.

BY THE COMMON COUNCIL.

WHEREAS--Dr. Josiah Andrews, for nearly fifty years a resident and honored citizen of this village, has been removed from us by death, and we deeply deplore his loss, feeling that indeed "a tower has fallen," a "star has set,"

Resolved--That we appreciate his great worth and eminent virtues as a friend, physician, citizen and patriot, and shall ever remember him with honor and loving gratitude.

Resolved--That we recognize the kind hand of Providence in prolonging his life, and in granting so large a measure of health that, while death came to him in the fulness of age, yet it was "a good time for it was God's time," and that from a happy home and dear friends here, he has joined loved and waiting ones in a happier home in Heaven.

Resolved--That these resolutions be spread upon the village records and published in the papers of this village.

O. N. HILTON, E. W. NOYES, Committee.
J. T. CLAPP.
